

851

The vikings remained raiders of the east coast of England until 851 when they wintered on the Isle of Thanet in KENT, by which time they had also penetrated deep into Saxi

851

The now multiplying attacks of the Danes was mainly the work of the fighting bishop of Sherborne, E A H L STAN.
They suffered a great defeat at A C L E A (OCKLEY?) in 851; nevertheless either in that year or in 855 they wintered for the first time in the Isle of Thanet or of Sheppey, though for some time their further activities were suspended.
